INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP and NATIONAL SEMINAR

UNIVERSITY of FLORENCE

October 29-30, 2020

PRESENTATION

Thanks to the Agreement of Cultural and Scientific Collaboration (2017-2024) between the University of Florence and the Mongolian State University of Arts and Culture-MSUAC in Ulaanbaator, a deep relationship was developed between our Institutions and Mongolian ones, being MONGOLIA an emerging country at economic, social and cultural levels, not yet well known here.

During the first years of the Agreement, the Florence University team carried out three missions in collaboration with the MSUAC team, also developing a tight collaboration with the French Scholars of INALCO, CEMS, UNIVERSITY OF SORBONNE and LAS-COLLÈGE DE FRANCE. Furthermore, the Humanistic Library of Florence University has started a specific collection of volumes and monographies about Mongolia, a very important initiative in the Italian Libraries scenario.

Today, through this collaboration between Mongolia, Italy, and France, and thanks to renown scholars and experts from all over Europe, such Institution's network is able to organize an international debate with the twofold aim of starting a systematic dialogue between scholars, and disseminating further knowledge about Mongolia in Europe.

For this purpose, an International Workshops and a National Seminar are organized in live streaming from Florence University, respectively on the 29th and on the 30th of October 2020, as preparatory meetings for the announced International Conference MONGOLIA2021.

The participants in the International meetings are invited to debate about the new Mongolian challenges in the contemporary global scenario, from the climate change to the future of nomadic cultures, from the environment and natural resources protection to the neoliberal market situation, with a special reference to the cashmere production and its commerce between Mongolia and Tuscany.

The meetings will be precious occasions for the participants to present their works and research interests, as well as their contributions to the foreseen International Conference Mongolia 2021.

You are invited to join the Live Stream event on October 29-30, 2020, AT 9.30AM - european time- clicking the link <https://www.unifi.it/mod-MDVideo.html>
