FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE EVALUATION PROCESS

The written section will assess the knowledge of the fundamental notions of each area, the capacity to develop arguments, and the familiarity with the system of sources and the main research lines.

The oral section will assess the capacity to effectively present the research project, and to provide evidence of the knowledge of the related topics.

The assessment of the research project will be based mainly on its originality and methodological soundness.

The assessment of titles, experiences and publications will be based on respectively their relevance for the specific research area (for publications) and time needed to earn the title or complete the experience.

THEMATICS

The written section will turn around aspects specific to each curriculum and, in the case of the positions related to specific research topics, around profiles that are particularly relevant for these.
