Erasmus+ Jean Monnet Actions (2021 – 2027) Infoday – University of Firenze 27.01.2022 Jlenia Destito (EACEA)
Importance of mastering the award criteria

Carefully read the 4 award criteria of your call in the Erasmus + Programme Guide (Part B):

a) Relevance (max 25 points)
b) Quality of the project design and implementation (max 25 points)
c) Quality of the partnership and cooperation arrangements (max 25 points)
d) Impact, dissemination and sustainability (max 25 points)

Each criterion contains sub-criteria!

For more information have a look at: https://erasmus-plus.ec.europa.eu/programme-guide/part-b/jean-monnet-actions/higher-education
For example: the sub-criteria under relevance (Modules)

The extent to which the proposal meets the objectives of the Jean Monnet action:

- addresses EU Studies,
- fosters dialogue between the academic world and society, including local and state level policy-makers, civil servants, civil society actors, representatives of the different levels of education and of the media;
- generates knowledge and insights that can support EU policy-making and strengthen the role of the EU in a globalised world;
- includes active outreach and educational work that will spread knowledge about EU subjects to wider society (beyond academia and specialised audiences) and will bring the EU closer to the public.

The extent the proposal reaches priority target groups:

- Higher education students of European Union Studies.
- Higher education students who do not automatically come into contact with EU studies (in fields beyond law, economics, and political sciences).
- For third countries not associated to the Programme, the potential to enhance EU public diplomacy.
Language of the application

You can submit your application in any of the EU official language! However we encourage to use English to facilitate the evaluation of your proposal, as well as the project implementation should your proposal be successful.

Nevertheless, the teaching courses and any other activity/event can be delivered in the national language once the project is funded.
Any other doubt or question?

For any other questions, please write to the secretariat of EACEA Jean Monnet Action: EACEA-AJM@ec.europa.eu