Fairfield University cordially invites you to the second annual

Student FORum: Under TwentyFOUR

Italian and US university students discuss:

The Erasmus Generation vs. Junior Year Abroad

Student Mobility in the European Union

Sponsored by Fairfield University Florence Campus, in collaboration with the City of Florence, Office of Tourism, Europe, University, Youth and Equal Opportunity, the University of Florence School of Political Science “Cesare Alfieri”, School of Education Sciences, School of Humanities, the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence, and The Tuscan American Association

Monday, April 2, 2012

6:00pm to 8:00pm

Palazzo Giovane, Vicolo di Santa Maria Maggiore 1

A light buffet will be offered courtesy of Fairfield University following the forum

Welcome and Introductory Remarks:

- Joanne Maddux, Program Director, Fairfield University Florence Program
- Dr. Cristina Giachi, City of Florence, Deputy Mayor for Tourism, Europe, University, Youth and Equal Opportunity
- Dr. Franca Alacevich, Università di Firenze, Dean, School of Political Science
- Dr. Max Guderzo, Coordinator, Jean Monnet Centre and Professor of International History, Università di Firenze

Student Forum Speakers:

- UNIFI Student Participants in the Fairfield University Florence Living and Learning Program:
  - Claudia Liberatore (Political Science), Scholarship Recipient, Fairfield Semester in Connecticut, Fall 2010
  - Marta Meniconi (Communication and Media Studies)
  - Leonardo Pierini (Pre-Law)
  - Lorenzo Sarti (Computer Science)
- Amelia Curotto, Program Assistant, Fairfield University Florence Program

This event is part of Project LINK of the Comune di Firenze: to unite Italian and foreign students in Florence! (facebook.com/palazzogiovane.)

Student Forum Project Coordinators:

- Prof. Lisa Friend (Fairfield University Florence Campus)
- Prof. Max Guderzo (Università di Firenze, Jean Monnet Chair)