Fairfield University Florence Campus
in collaboration with the City of Florence, Office of University, Research and Youth Policies, the University of Florence, School of Political Science “Cesare Alfieri” and the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence, is pleased to invite you to the 1st Student FORum: Under TwentyFOUR

UNIFI Students Present in English on Italian Current Events:
Italy: From a Country of Emigration to a Country of Immigration

When: March 9, 2011, at 7p.m.
Where: Palazzo Giovane (Casa della Creatività), Sala Conferenze Vicolo Santa Maria Maggiore, 1, Firenze
Welcome: Prof. Joanne Maddux, Program Director, Fairfield University Florence Program

Introductory remarks: Dr. Cristina Giachi, City of Florence, Deputy Mayor for University, Research, and Youth Policies;
Dr. Franca Alacevich, University of Florence, Dean, School of Political Science;
Dr. Max Guderzo, Coordinator, Jean Monnet Centre and Professor of International Relations, University of Florence

Student Forum: University of Florence Student Participants in the Fairfield University Florence Living and Learning Program:
• Claudia Liberatore (Political Science), Scholarship Recipient, Fairfield Semester in Connecticut, Fall 2010;
• Sebastiano Mori (Political Science);
• Leonardo Pierini (Pre-Law);
• Irene Campolmi (Arts and Letters), Moderator for Question and Answer Session

Refreshments will be offered by Fairfield University at 8:30 p.m

This event is part of Project LINK of the Comune di Firenze: to unite Italian and Foreign students in Florence! (facebook.com/palazzogiovanel). Palazzo Giovane is a two minute walk from Duomo, corner of Via Cerretani and Via dei Vecchietti.

Sponsors:

Student Forum Project Coordinators:
• Prof. Lisa Friend (Fairfield University Florence Campus),
• Prof. Max Guderzo (University of Florence, Jean Monnet Chair)

Special thanks to:

ninapeci.com
americansaladco.com