INSURANCE

During the whole stay, incoming international students must have a valid international health insurance providing extensive coverage, including medical expenses (illness, pre-existing diseases, hospital charges), as well as a life and repatriation insurance.

Additionally, international students must pay the student personal accident policy of the Universidad Nacional de Colombia (around 8 dollar) and comply with all the guidelines stipulated by the National Head Office of Welfare (Dirección Nacional de Bienestar). The payment of the accident policy must be paid in person once the students have formalized their mobility at the international office.

HOUSING

The Universidad Nacional de Colombia does not have accommodations; however, the ORI (International Office) of each campus can offer a list of options:

The selection will depend exclusively on the student.

VISA

See the information under "Migratory Process":
