Address for exchange students studying in Saint-Petersburg Kapitanskaya str. 3, Saint- Petersburg

Accommodation fee: about 4900 RUR per month

Application: included into the application form

It is necessary to check the acceptance letter and e-mail before departure to make sure that the dormitory isn't changed.

VISA

Before arrival to SPbU exchange students will receive Acceptance Letters with the information about scholarship and housing. It's just a confirmation of successful consideration of the application.

Additionally exchange students will receive official Visa Invitation Letters. Invitation Letters are issued by the Federal Migration Service of the Russian Federation. This procedure usually takes from 30 to 45 days. Approximately 1 month before the proposed arrival date they will be forwarded to partner universities postal addresses. It is necessary to make sure that all the personal information is written correctly in the Visa Invitation Letter.

To get visa exchange student will have to apply to the Consulate / Embassy of the Russian Federation in their country with the official Visa Invitation Letter from SPbU.

Following the common rules single-entry visa for 90 days is issued first. Upon arrival to SPbU exchange students will be able to extend the visa and get the multiple-entry one.

It's forbidden to apply for tourist or any other type of visa because it will deny the student's enrollment to SPbU
