APPLICATION DEADLINES

Application Deadlines

Fall/Full Year - March 1

Spring - October 15

ENROLMENT/ATTENDANCE FEES

Exchange Students will remain enrolled as full-time students throughout the exchange period and will continue to pay tuition fees to the home institution but they will be required to pay an orientation fee and are subject to special course fees at UM.

UM's English Language Institute courses shall not be included as part of the program and fee reciprocity.

Exchange Students will be responsible for all other costs not covered by the exchange program, including books, transportation, accommodation, meals and health care

INSURANCE

University of Montana requires all students taking 7 or more credits to have and maintain major medical insurance. Also, as exchange students will be J-1 or F-1 visa holders, their insurance needs to meet J-1 and F-1 visa requirements which are the following:

- Medical benefits of at least $100,000 per accident or illness.
- Repatriation of remains in the amount of $25,000.
- Expenses associated with the medical evacuation of the exchange visitor to his or her home country in the amount of $50,000.
- A deductible not to exceed $500 per accident or illness.

Students will need to show proof of this insurance when you get to Missoula.

If students will be using an insurance policy from their home country while studying in the U.S., they need to make sure that their insurance includes the above minimum benefits. Please note: All exchange students that have a J or F visa type will automatically be charged for the Blue Cross/Blue Shield Montana Student Health Insurance Fee ($2,143.74) whether they refuse the student insurance or not when registering for classes. The 'BCBSMT Insurance Fee' AND the associated 'Health Service Fee' will be removed from their registration bill ONLY when written proof of another insurance coverage (in English) is presented to Dawn Camara-Clark in the Curry Health Center. Proof of coverage needs to include the following: policyholder's name, coverage dates, and statement of benefits. Changes to Student Insurance must be made at the Student Insurance Office no later than the 15th instructional day of the semester the student is registered for.

HOUSING

Partner University Exchange students should make their housing arrangements and apply for housing through the UM Housing at the University of Montana. Housing is assigned on a first come, first assigned basis by the date of submission of the housing application.
